UNCOLLECTED CONFEDERATE DIVIDENDS .-In the Circuit Court of Richmond on Satur day a judgment was entered for the plaintiff in the case of W. B. Stanard, administrator of Judge Robert Stanard vs. Richmond and Petersburg Railroad Company. Judge Stanard judge, order and decree that the defendant, A. was at the breaking out of the war the owner D Smith, render before one of the Commissionthey had been declared until the 14th August, 1873. The amount sued for was $740 in Confederate money, which was scaled down to $157 in the present currency.

This is the rarest of the same of the said Commissioner in making up the account of said A. D. Smith, adm'r. as aforesaid, is directed to take as prima EARLY LAWS OF VIRGINIA. -- There has early editions of the laws of the colony, and is facie correct any settlement heretofore made by dedicated by the compiler to Francis, Lord the said administrator, with the right to any Howard, his Majesty's lieutenant and governor- party in interest to surcharge and falsify the general of Virginia. His particular copy has what none others posses-about fifty pages at the end in manuscript in continuation of those printed, and most probably written at the time. The value of this volume is largely increased by having belonged to Colonel Nathaniel Bacon, Jr., who rose up in rebellion, and was attainted of high treason in 1680.

HEALTH REGULATIONS.

At a meeting of the Board of Health, held June 15th, 1874, the Secretary was directed to publish the following standing order: ORDERED BY THE BOARD, That the following notice shall be incorporated with the proceedings of the meeting, and published for one week, every other day, in the Alexandria Gazette.

The Board of Health of the city of Alexandria respectfully request the prompt and serious attention of the citizens to the following sanitary regulations and considerations, and ask their cooperation in carrying them out, assuring them that it is the determination of every member of the Board in his respective district to do all in his power to keep the city in a cleanly condition, by enforcing all the laws in the case made and provided.

An Act to prevent nuisances.
Section 1. Be it enacted by the City Council of Alexandria, That no person or persons shall discharge, cast or cause to flow upon any of the streets, lanes or alleys, or any part of the city, any kitchen offal, liquid or solid, but shall de posit the same in some suitable vessel, there to be kept until called for and removed in the manner herein provided.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the Trustees of the Poor to cause all such offal to be called for, collected and removed four times a week in the months of May, June, July, August and September, and twice a week during the remainder of the year, for the use and benefit of the Alms House.

Section 3. Any person or persons, his or their servants, who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall forfeit and pay not less than the sum of one dollar, and not more than five dollars, to be recovered as other fines and forfeitures are recovered. Section 4. It shall be the duty of the Board of complied with and enforced.

Section 5. This act shall be in force from its Passage. Passed July 10th, 1865. The citizens are reque ted in case of any negligence on the part of the drivers of the garbage carts to call at their houses, to leaves their names sidences with any member of the Board of Health. This will ensure a prompt and certain remedy for the inat tention complained of. The citizens are also respectfully requested to remove immediately from their respective premises all offal matter, manure or any other nui-sance which may endanger the health of the city; and they are hereby notified that on or before the first of August the members of the Board will visit their respective districts, to see whether these regulations have been complied with. The citizens are also respectfully requested to keep this notice for future reference so that they may see who are the members of the Board and the location of their respective districts, and they are asked as a favor this: that when they are personally cognizant of any nuisance to report at once to the proper authorities, viz: the members of the Board in whose districts the nuisance ex-

Brentsville, June 8, 1874.
To the plaintiffs and defendants in the above cause and all others interested: Take notice, That I have appointed THURS-DAY, the 23d day of July, 1874, at my office in the town of Brent-ville, to execute the above de-cree. The first order of reference, entered at the May term, 1868, required one of the Commis-sioners of this Court "to convene the creditors of P. D. Lipscomb and ascertain the amount of debts due by said Lipscomb or by any firm of which he was a member, and to take an account of the personal assets of the said Lipscomb, and to settle the account of Ei pa Hunton, executor of said Lipscomb. The second order of reference, entered at the May term, 1869, "recommitted the report made by the Commissioner under the former rule, with instructions to state the debts against the said Lipscomb, according to their priority, and to state an account of the debts against the late firm of L. C. Asmun & Co." The third order of reference, entered at the May term, 1870, sustained sundry exceptions to the report returned, and recommitted the report to the Commissioner, with instructions to conform his report to the decree sustaining the exceptions; and said Commissioner was turther ordered to state and settle a partnership account of the late firm of Asmun & Lipscomb, and report any outstanding debts of said firm. Given under my hand as Commissioner of the said Court the day and year above written.
